SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall participate as instructed by the U.S. Probation Officer in a program approved by the probation office for treatment of narcotic addiction, drug dependency, or substance abuse, which may include testing to determine if defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol. The defendant shall also abstain from the use of alcohol and/or other intoxicants during the term of supervision. Defendant must contribute towards the cost of any programs, to the extent defendant is financially able to do so, as determined by the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall submit his/her person, residence, office, safety deposit box, storage unit, property, or vehicle to a search, conducted by a U.S. Probation Officer or any other law enforcement officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall notify any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall participate in the location monitoring program with Active Global Positioning Satellite technology for a period of _60_ days. The defendant is restricted to his/her residence at all times except for employment, religious services, medical, legal reasons, or as otherwise approved by the location monitoring specialist. The defendant shall abide by all program requirements, and must contribute towards the costs of the services, to the extent financially able, as determined by the location monitoring specialist.

The defendant shall participate as directed in a mental health program approved by the United States Probation Office. The defendant must contribute towards the cost of any program to the extent the defendant is financially able to do so, as determined by the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall participate in a sexual deviancy evaluation conducted by a sexual deviancy treatment provider, as directed and approved by the U.S. Probation Officer. The treatment provider shall be trained and experienced in the treatment of sexual deviancy, and follow the guideline practices established by the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA). The sexual deviancy evaluation may include psychological and physiological testing. The defendant shall disclose all previous sex offender or mental health evaluations to the treatment provider. The defendant shall also contribute to the costs of the evaluation, according to his/her ability, as determined by the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall follow all rules, to include other lifestyle restrictions by the defendant's therapist, and continue with those rules and restrictions as they pertain to avoiding risk situations throughout the course of the defendant's supervision.

The defendant shall not associate with any known gang members.
